Name: Date: Score: / 6

Pam's Painting: Reading Comprehension

Fiction story · about 45 words

Read the story. Then answer the questions. Circle the best answer or write it on the line.

🎨 Pam's Painting

Pam painted a picture for Grandma. She used yellow for the sun. She used green for the grass. She spilled blue paint on the paper! Pam was upset. Then she smiled. She turned the spill into a pond. She added two ducks. Grandma loved it.

1. Main idea: What is the story mostly about?
   A. Pam fixes a mistake in her painting B. Pam goes swimming C. Pam gets a new dog

2. Detail: Who was the painting for?
   A. Grandma B. her teacher C. her dog

3. Detail: What color was the sun?
   A. red B. yellow C. blue

4. Sequence: What happened after Pam used green?
   A. She spilled blue paint. B. She went to bed. C. She ate lunch.

5. Inference: What did Pam learn?
   A. A mistake can turn into something good. B. Never paint again.
   C. Blue is a bad color.

6. Detail: What did Pam turn the spill into?

ANSWER KEY

Pam's Painting: Reading Comprehension (answers)

Fiction story · about 45 words

Read the story. Then answer the questions. Circle the best answer or write it on the line.

🎨 Pam's Painting

Pam painted a picture for Grandma. She used yellow for the sun. She used green for the grass. She spilled blue paint on the paper! Pam was upset. Then she smiled. She turned the spill into a pond. She added two ducks. Grandma loved it.

1. Main idea: What is the story mostly about?
   A. Pam fixes a mistake in her painting B. Pam goes swimming
   C. Pam gets a new dog

2. Detail: Who was the painting for?
   A. Grandma B. her teacher C. her dog

3. Detail: What color was the sun?
   A. red B. yellow C. blue

4. Sequence: What happened after Pam used green?
   A. She spilled blue paint. B. She went to bed. C. She ate lunch.

5. Inference: What did Pam learn?
   A. A mistake can turn into something good. B. Never paint again.
   C. Blue is a bad color.

6. Detail: What did Pam turn the spill into?
   a pond