Name: Date: Score: / 6

Rainbows: Reading Comprehension

Nonfiction: Science · about 45 words

Read the story. Then answer the questions. Circle the best answer or write it on the line.

🌈 Rainbows

You might see a rainbow after rain. A rainbow forms when sunlight shines through drops of water. The water splits the light into colors. A rainbow has red, orange, yellow, green, blue, indigo, and violet. To see one, stand with the sun behind you.

1. Main idea: What is this mostly about?
   A. clouds B. rainbows C. thunder

2. Detail: When might you see a rainbow?
   A. at midnight B. after rain C. in a cave

3. Detail: What shines through the drops of water?
   A. moonlight B. a lamp C. sunlight

4. Detail: What is the first color named?
   A. blue B. red C. violet

5. Detail: Where should the sun be to see a rainbow?
   A. under you B. behind you C. in front of you

6. Vocabulary: What does splits mean in this passage?

ANSWER KEY

Rainbows: Reading Comprehension (answers)

Nonfiction: Science · about 45 words

Read the story. Then answer the questions. Circle the best answer or write it on the line.

🌈 Rainbows

You might see a rainbow after rain. A rainbow forms when sunlight shines through drops of water. The water splits the light into colors. A rainbow has red, orange, yellow, green, blue, indigo, and violet. To see one, stand with the sun behind you.

1. Main idea: What is this mostly about?
   A. clouds B. rainbows C. thunder

2. Detail: When might you see a rainbow?
   A. at midnight B. after rain C. in a cave

3. Detail: What shines through the drops of water?
   A. moonlight B. a lamp C. sunlight

4. Detail: What is the first color named?
   A. blue B. red C. violet

5. Detail: Where should the sun be to see a rainbow?
   A. under you B. behind you C. in front of you

6. Vocabulary: What does splits mean in this passage?
   breaks into parts