Name: Date: Score: / 6

Two Friends, One Swing: Comprehension

Fiction story · about 45 words

Read the story. Then answer the questions. Circle the best answer or write it on the line.

🛝 Two Friends, One Swing

Ava and Ben ran to the swing. There was only one! "It's mine," said Ava. "No, it's mine," said Ben. They both felt grumpy. Then Ava had an idea. "Let's take turns. You go ten swings, then I go ten." Ben smiled. They counted together.

1. Main idea: What is the story mostly about?
   A. two friends learn to share a swing B. two friends go home C. a broken swing

2. Detail: How many swings were there?
   A. five B. two C. one

3. Character: How did Ava and Ben feel before the idea?
   A. sleepy B. grumpy C. happy

4. Detail: What was Ava's idea?
   A. take turns B. go home C. get a new swing

5. Detail: How many swings did each child get?
   A. one hundred B. ten C. two

6. Inference: What lesson does the story teach?

ANSWER KEY

Two Friends, One Swing: Comprehension (answers)

Fiction story · about 45 words

Read the story. Then answer the questions. Circle the best answer or write it on the line.

Two Friends, One Swing

Ava and Ben ran to the swing. There was only one! "It's mine," said Ava. "No, it's mine," said Ben. They both felt grumpy. Then Ava had an idea. "Let's take turns. You go ten swings, then I go ten." Ben smiled. They counted together.

1. Main idea: What is the story mostly about?
   A. two friends learn to share a swing B. two friends go home C. a broken swing

2. Detail: How many swings were there?
   A. five B. two C. one

3. Character: How did Ava and Ben feel before the idea?
   A. sleepy B. grumpy C. happy

4. Detail: What was Ava's idea?
   A. take turns B. go home C. get a new swing

5. Detail: How many swings did each child get?
   A. one hundred B. ten C. two

6. Inference: What lesson does the story teach?
   It is good to share and take turns.