The Moon Cake Festival

Every fall, Mei's family celebrates the Moon Festival. This year, Mei helped her grandmother make moon cakes. They pressed sweet bean paste into round molds. The cakes came out with pretty flower patterns on top.

That night, the whole family went to the park with paper lanterns. The full moon was big and bright. Grandmother told the story of a lady who lived on the moon. Mei held her lantern high. She ate a moon cake and looked up. She thought the moon looked like a giant moon cake, too.
