Too Much Stuff

Owen's room was full of toys. There were toys on the bed, toys on the floor, and toys under the desk. One day, Owen tripped over a truck and landed on a pile of blocks. "Ouch!" he said. "I have too much stuff."

Owen made two piles. One pile was toys he still loved. The other pile was toys he did not play with anymore. He gave the second pile to the children's hospital. A few weeks later, a nurse sent a thank-you card with a picture of kids playing with his old toys. Owen smiled. His room was neat, and his heart felt full.
