✈️ Amelia Earhart

Amelia Earhart was born in Kansas in 1897. When she was a girl, women were not expected to have adventures. But Amelia loved to explore. She climbed trees, hunted for bugs, and kept a scrapbook of newspaper stories about women who did important jobs.

Amelia took her first airplane ride in 1920, and she knew right away that she had to fly. She worked many jobs to save money for flying lessons. In 1932, she became the first woman to fly alone across the Atlantic Ocean.

In 1937, Amelia set out to fly all the way around the world. Near the end of the trip, her plane disappeared over the Pacific Ocean. No one knows for sure what happened. Today she is remembered as a brave pilot who showed that women could do anything.
