Name: Date: Score: / 6

The Kite Festival: Reading Comprehension

Fiction story · about 140 words

Read the story. Then answer each question. Circle the best answer or write your answer on the lines.

The Kite Festival

Every spring, the town of Brookside held a kite festival at the park. This year, Nadia and her grandfather built their own kite from sticks, string, and red tissue paper. Grandpa had built kites as a boy in Pakistan, where kite flying is a big celebration.

At the festival, the sky was full of colors. There were dragons, fish, and even a giant octopus kite. Nadia's little red kite looked plain next to them. Then the wind died down. One by one, the fancy kites drooped and fell. They were too heavy.

But Nadia's kite was light. Grandpa showed her how to tug the string gently to catch the smallest breeze. Her kite stayed up, dancing high above the park. When the judges gave out ribbons, Nadia won "Longest Flight." Grandpa winked. "Sometimes simple is best," he said.

1. Main idea: What is the story mostly about?

   A. a grandpa moves to Pakistan  B. a girl's simple homemade kite flies the longest
   C. a town plants trees in spring  D. a girl buys a dragon kite

2. Detail: What did Nadia and Grandpa use to build the kite?

   A. a kit from a store  B. wood and nails  C. plastic and metal
   D. sticks, string, and red tissue paper

3. Detail: Where did Grandpa build kites as a boy?

   A. Japan  B. France  C. Pakistan  D. Brookside

4. Sequence: What happened when the wind died down?

   A. It began to rain.  B. Nadia's kite fell first.  C. Everyone went home.
   D. The fancy kites drooped and fell.

5. Inference: Why did Nadia's kite stay up?

   A. It was the biggest.  B. It was light, and she tugged the string gently.
   C. Grandpa held it up.  D. It had a motor.

6. Detail: What ribbon did Nadia win?

ANSWER KEY

The Kite Festival: Reading Comprehension (answers)

Fiction story · about 140 words

Read the story. Then answer each question. Circle the best answer or write your answer on the lines.

The Kite Festival

Every spring, the town of Brookside held a kite festival at the park. This year, Nadia and her grandfather built their own kite from sticks, string, and red tissue paper. Grandpa had built kites as a boy in Pakistan, where kite flying is a big celebration.

At the festival, the sky was full of colors. There were dragons, fish, and even a giant octopus kite. Nadia's little red kite looked plain next to them. Then the wind died down. One by one, the fancy kites drooped and fell. They were too heavy.

But Nadia's kite was light. Grandpa showed her how to tug the string gently to catch the smallest breeze. Her kite stayed up, dancing high above the park. When the judges gave out ribbons, Nadia won "Longest Flight." Grandpa winked. "Sometimes simple is best," he said.

1. Main idea: What is the story mostly about?
   A. a grandpa moves to Pakistan B. a girl's simple homemade kite flies the longest
   C. a town plants trees in spring D. a girl buys a dragon kite

2. Detail: What did Nadia and Grandpa use to build the kite?
   A. a kit from a store B. wood and nails C. plastic and metal
   D. sticks, string, and red tissue paper

3. Detail: Where did Grandpa build kites as a boy?
   A. Japan B. France C. Pakistan D. Brookside

4. Sequence: What happened when the wind died down?
   A. It began to rain. B. Nadia's kite fell first. C. Everyone went home.
   D. The fancy kites drooped and fell.

5. Inference: Why did Nadia's kite stay up?
   A. It was the biggest. B. It was light, and she tugged the string gently.
   C. Grandpa held it up. D. It had a motor.

6. Detail: What ribbon did Nadia win?
   Longest Flight