Name: Date: Score: / 6

George Washington: Learn and Practice

The first president of the United States.

Read each question. Circle the best answer.

About Washington

- George Washington was born in Virginia on February 22, 1732.
- He led the Continental Army in the American Revolution.
- He became the first president in 1789 and served two terms.
- He is called the Father of His Country. His home was Mount Vernon.

1 Who was the first president of the United States?

A. Abraham Lincoln

B. George Washington

C. Thomas Jefferson

2 In which colony was Washington born?

A. California B. Texas C. Virginia

3 Washington led which army?

A. the Continental Army

B. the British Army C. the Space Army

4 What is Washington called?

A. Honest Abe

B. the Father of His Country

C. the King of America

5 What was the name of Washington's home?

A. Monticello B. Mount Vernon

C. the Log Cabin

6 How many terms did Washington serve as president?

A. 4 B. 1 C. 2

Draw it! Draw a picture of something you learned today.

ANSWER KEY

George Washington: Learn and Practice (answers)

The first president of the United States.

Read each question. Circle the best answer.

1. Who was the first president of the United States?

A. Abraham Lincoln
B. George Washington
C. Thomas Jefferson

Washington became president in 1789.

2. In which colony was Washington born?

A. California B. Texas C. Virginia

He was born in Virginia in 1732.

3. Washington led which army?

A. the Continental Army
B. the British Army C. the Space Army

He led the colonists in the Revolution.

4. What is Washington called?

A. Honest Abe
B. the Father of His Country
C. the King of America

He helped start the new nation.

5. What was the name of Washington's home?

A. Monticello B. Mount Vernon
C. the Log Cabin

Mount Vernon is in Virginia.

6. How many terms did Washington serve as president?

A. 4 B. 1 C. 2

He chose to step down after two terms.