Name: Date: Score: / 6

Being a Good Citizen: Learn and Practice

How we help our school, community and country.

Read each question. Circle the best answer.

Good citizens

- A citizen is a member of a community or country.
- Good citizens follow rules, tell the truth and treat others with respect.
- Good citizens help others and take care of the places we share.
- Citizens have rights (freedoms) and responsibilities (jobs).

1 What is a citizen?

A. a member of a community or country

B. a big city C. a kind of bird

2 Which shows good citizenship?

A. picking up litter B. being unkind

C. breaking rules

3 A good citizen tells...

A. secrets to hurt others B. lies

C. the truth

4 What does respect mean?

A. ignoring people

B. treating others the way you want to be treated

C. taking things without asking

5 Your friend dropped her books. A good citizen would...

A. laugh B. help pick them up

C. walk away

6 How can you care for your community?

A. draw on walls

B. recycle and keep parks clean

C. throw trash on the ground

Draw it! Draw a picture of something you learned today.

ANSWER KEY

Being a Good Citizen: Learn and Practice (answers)

How we help our school, community and country.

Read each question. Circle the best answer.

1 What is a citizen?

A. a member of a community or country

B. a big city C. a kind of bird

You are a citizen of your community.

2 Which shows good citizenship?

A. picking up litter B. being unkind

C. breaking rules

Picking up litter helps everyone.

3 A good citizen tells...

A. secrets to hurt others B. lies

C. the truth

Honesty builds trust.

4 What does respect mean?

A. ignoring people

B. treating others the way you want to be treated

C. taking things without asking

Respect means being kind and fair.

5 Your friend dropped her books. A good citizen would...

A. laugh B. help pick them up

C. walk away

Helping others is good citizenship.

6 How can you care for your community?

A. draw on walls

B. recycle and keep parks clean

C. throw trash on the ground

Taking care of shared places helps everyone.